A Good Wife For Somebody.

A Kansas girl graduate to whom had been assigned the theme, "Beyond the Alps Lies Italy," wrote this essay: "I do not care a cent whether Italy lies beyond the Alps or in Missouri. I do not expect to set the river on fire with my future career. I am glad that I have a very good education, but I am not going to abuse it by writing poetry or essays on the future woman. It will enable me to correct the grammar of any lover I may have should he speak of 'dolls' in my presence or 'seen a man.' It will also come handy when I want to figure how many pounds of soap a woman can get for three dozen eggs at the grocery so I do not begrudge the time I spent in acquiring it. "But my ambitions do not fly so high. I just want to marry a man who can lick anybody of his weight in the township, who can run an eighty acre farm, and has no female relatives to come around and try to boss the ranch. I will agree to cook dinners for him that won't send him to an early grave, and lavish upon him a wholesome affection, and to see that his razor has not been used to cut broom wire when he wants to shave. In view of all this, I do not care if I get a little rusty on the rule of three and kindred things as the years go by."

Not as Rich as Rockefeller.

If you had all the wealth of Rockefeller, the Standard Oil magnate, you could not buy a better medicine for bowel complaints than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The most eminent physician can not prescribe a better preparation for colic and diarrhoea, both for children and adults. The uniform success of this remedy has shown it to be superior to all others. It never fails, and when reduced with water and sweetened, is pleasant to take. Every family should be supplied with it. Sold by Clear Drug Co. and all medicine dealers.

A Habit with Him.

There was a business man in a little Western town who never had a good word for anybody. Every one held him in more or less fear and many disliked him strongly. He made no effort to cultivate friendship and at one time or another almost every inhabitant of the village had had a quarrel with him. One day the old lion tried to board a train which did not stop. He was thrown a great distance and fell in a heap on the track in the rear of the departing train. The group of villagers on the depot platform thought that their hereditary enemy had been killed before their eyes and were ready to drop all their bitter prejudices at the grave.

One ran up to where the fallen monarch lay, and, seeing signs of returning life, anxiously asked: "Are you badly hurt, captain?" With the first short breath the fallen man was able to draw he gasped: "No, you d--d old fool! That's the way I always get off a train."--Kansas City Times.

For a painful burn there is nothing like DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. There are a host of imitations of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve on the market--see that you get the genuine. Ask for DeWitt's. Good, too, for sunburn, cuts, bruises, and especially recommended for piles. The name E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, is on every box. Sold by all druggists.

Very few persons acquit themselves nobly in their first speech. At a wedding feast recently the bridegroom was called upon, as usual, to respond to the given toast, in spite of the fact that he had previously pleaded to be excused. Blessing to the roots of his hair, he rose to his feet. He intended to imply that he was unprepared for speech-making; but he unfortunately placed his hand upon the bride's shoulder, and looked down upon her as he murmured out his opening and concluding words: "This--er--thing has been forced upon me."--Philadelphia Public Ledger.

A good complexion is impossible with the stomach out of order. If pretty folks would pay more attention to their stomachs and less to the skin on their faces, they would have better complexion. RIGOLD'S PLEASANT LAXATIVE will digest what you eat and put your stomach back in right shape to do its own work. Rigold's relieves palpitation of the heart, flatulence, sour stomach, heart burn, etc. Sold by all druggists.

The ticket speculator entered the office of the great manufacturer. "Now, sir," said the former, "let me sell you a season ticket to the baseball grounds." The great manufacturer shook his head sadly. "No," he sighed, "I'm only the proprietor. You'll have to see the office boy."--Young People.

Have you pains in the back, inflammation of any kind, rheumatism, fainting spells, indigestion or constipation, Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes you well, keeps you well. 35 cents. Jno. H. McMaster & Co.

A traveling salesman just back from Maine says that he recently sailed an old fisherman in a snow-bound harbor what he did with himself evenings. "O," said the old man, "sometimes I set and think, and then again I just set."--Boston Record.
